

Ann, Tom, Linda and Ron celebrate the end of the week-long dance camp

Linda and Ron perform their jive routine at the final showcase.

DANCE CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND BALLROOM DANCE CAMP

Two SaddleBrooke Ballroom Dance Club couples attended an Adult Ballroom Dance Camp at Brigham Young University in Utah in July. Linda and Ron Bechky and Tom and Ann Kurtz returned from the week-long experience with reports of long days (classes, lectures, and practice) and great instruction from national and international ballroom dance champions. Their performance routine classes were American Foxtrot and International Jive. Other classes included Quickstep, Cha Cha, Paso Doble, Night Club 2 Step, Viennese Waltz, International Rumba, West Coast Swing and Mambo. It was an intensive week BUT SO MUCH FUN!

The couples have now received their Dance Camp DVDs that will allow them to continue to practice not only what they learned in the classes they attended but also to try out patterns and routines from other levels and classes they didn't have time to attend. They may arrange a time to show portions of the DVD to other club members before or after Open Ballroom sessions.

If you've ever considered attending a Ballroom Dance Camp, talk to Linda and Ron or Tom and Ann.....they'll encourage you to give it a try!
